Celebrate The SOBs’ 38th Anniversary with Afternoon Tea

Our newest Footprints of a Gigantic Hound Award winner SOB Carrol Clemens has invited us to celebrate the Club’s 38th Anniversary with afternoon tea (not high tea) on Saturday, April 7, at her home in Federal Way! Tea is served at 1:00 p.m.

Carrol asks us to bring traditional fare of the sort served at “afternoon tea”: Tea cakes, finger sandwiches, and small 2-bite sweet or savory treats are her suggestions!

Stop by and join us! It’s a great way to spend your Saturday afternoon—visiting, eating, imbibing, winning free raffle items, congratulating Carrol on her recent Award, and welcoming springtime!! We’d love to see YOU there!!

Driving Directions to Carrol’s Home: From I-5 north- or southbound, exit in Federal Way at S.W. 320th Street and head west. After passing through intersections at 21st Ave. S.W. and at 26th Ave. S.W., turn left on S.W. 323rd Street. Then take the first left on 33rd Avenue S.W. Clemens’ home will be on your right at 32148—33rd Avenue S.W. If you need further, call her at (253) 838-1790.

Our 2018 Beaten’s Christmas Annual Has Arrived!!

Another BIG issue of our Beaten’s Christmas Annual was delivered to attendees at our 36th Masters’ Celebration on March 10!! Though it’s not our biggest issue—the 2016 issue had 65 pages—you’ll find 58 pages packed with pastiches, quizzes, recipes, research and fun, fun, fun!!

Editor Terri expressed her huge gratitude for editing assist to SOBs Margaret Nelson and Ann Milam (though they can’t be faulted for the typos of Cameron Brandon’s name in the “President’s Message))!!

Renewal Dues are Now Due

Are your dues paid for the April 2018 to March 2019 fiscal year??

If not, now’s the time to act! Send your check—payable to “The Sound of the Baskervilles”—to our new Treasurer:
Melinda Michaelson
P. O. Box 7633
Tacoma, WA 98417

If you joined in the last 6 months, chances are you paid a lower, prorated rate to join through March 31, 2018, so it’s time for you to renew as well! Rates are: $20 for individuals, $30 for families (U.S. funds only). Thanks!

Renewal deadline is March 31!
Time Again to Read VALL’s “Long Boring Part”

The Regular Monthly Meeting of The Sound of the Baskervilles will begin at 1:30 p.m. on Sunday, April 15, 2018 at the Seattle Public Library (Queen Anne Branch) at 400 West Garfield, Seattle (driving directions at left).

We’ll cover the entire novella “The Valley of Fear” at this meeting on the 3rd Sunday of April. Unlike in our days of old, we’ll have none of that easy, old “two meetings to cover a two-part story” in this cycle of our Canonical study!!

Adds PFL David: Conan Doyle had a lot of ground to cover in this story! First Holmes has to head to a small village in Sussex to solve the alleged murder of John Douglas; then we’re on to a years’ old retrospective of events occurring in America with one Birdy Edwards; and then it’s back to Baker Street for the “wrap up”!! And throughout, Moriarty is lurking in the background!

We hope you started on your study of VALL in March!! And, to get you motivated to finish this tale, at right is a quiz by SOB Charlie Cook that covers the second half of the story!! (Part 1 of Charlie’s quiz on VALL appeared in our March 2018 issue.)

Jersey Brett Autograph!

There will be a special drawing at this Meeting for an original autograph signature from Sherlockian favourite actor Jeremy Brett. To participate, email PFL David at david@soundofthebaskervilles.com and he’ll add your name to the drawing!

“The Valley of Fear”
Part II: The Scowrers

1. The tale began on what date?
2. Name the two men who met on the train to Vermissa Valley!
3. Name the union boss in Chicago and the one in Vermissa Valley!
4. What did the newspaper clipping say that McMurdo gave to the union boss in Vermissa?
5. What criminal activity did McMurdo claim he was involved in while in Chicago?
6. With whom did McMurdo argue over the love of what woman?
7. Name the Chicago policeman who knew about McMurdo’s criminal activity!
8. What two songs did McMurdo sing the night of his initiation?
9. Who and what was the victim on McMurdo’s first job for the Scowrers?
10. Name the Pinkerton man!
11. Name the seven men who waited with McMurdo to trap and kill the Pinkerton man!
12. How did John Douglas die and whom did Holmes claim was behind his death?

Answers may be found on Page 5

Beaten’s Has Arrived!!

SOB Michael Phillips’ efforts on his “Just Keep Calm & Carry On” poem has now paid off with sheet music! You’ll find an interesting revisit to the Piltdown Man Hoax that Ann Milam addressed in last year’s issue. And there’s a small tribute to SOB DC Smith, who passed away on January 11, explained at the bottom of Page 4.

We had a bunch of SOBs back with new contributions:

- Charlie Cook
- Margie Deck
- Sheila Holtgrieve
- Jean Macdonald
- Lauren Messenger
- Ann Milam
- Al Nelson—our resident pastiche writer
- Michael Phillips
- Lauran Stevens, and...
- PFL David Haugen

...and we had some new contributors too, including:

- Melinda Michaelson, who shares the quiz she conducted at the September 2017 meeting and is our new Treasurer (on April 1).
- Patt O’Neil, a fairly new member who lives in Olympia, gives us a pastiche that could give Al Nelson a run for his money;
- And...Cara Cross, who offers her very inventive test of your Canonical skills on Page 20—though technically she’s not a first timer because she had another of her photos featured on the cover of our 2013/2014 issue of Beaten’s!

We hope you enjoy the read! And, next time you see or talk to any of our contributors, be sure to give them a compliment on their selfless effort!!

2018 Contest!
Did We Grab You With That Headline?? We Hope So!

SOB Lauran Stevens has a new challenge for us and everyone is welcome to enter!!

IMAGINE: Of all the Sherlock Holmes stories written by Conan Doyle, there is bound to be at least one that you did not like the ending of, right?

Contest Rules & How to Enter

Decide which story—or stories—you would have liked to have a different or better ending. Explain what you would have had happen instead—to make it a more satisfying ending for you! And multiple entries are permitted!!

You don’t have to actually rewrite the original story’s ending; just explain how you would have liked the story to end.

Bring your entry to a meeting or mail it to Lauran at: 320 West Roy St., Apt. 207, Seattle, WA 98119.

As we did with Lauran’s 2016 contest—for which winning entries appeared in our 2017 issue of Beaten’s Christmas Annual—the winning entries for this 2018 contest will appear in our 2019 issue of Beaten’s.

There will be Prizes and Your Deadline is November 30, 2018!!

Toasts & Photos from our 2018 Masters’ Celebration!

A number of toasts were made throughout our banquet by a number of attendees: PFL David started off with a toast to our SOB Members who passed away since last year’s banquet (Kay Chelemedos, Jim French and DC Smith); Margie Deck hailed Watson’s orderly Murray; Sheila Holtgrieve recognized Monsignor Ronald Knox, PFL David continued with toasts to Queen Victoria, ACD himself, Dr. Watson and, of course, our hero Holmes; and VP Kashena Konecki toasted Baker Street.

Cara Cross read the following toast from Lauran Stevens, who was unable to attend: “A toast to David, Sheila, Terri and Margie without whom this Club would not be as enjoyable and informative as it is. And, a special toast to Airy Maher, Cameron Brandon, Kashena Konecki, Lauren Messenger and Shannon Wallace—our newer members—who have joined the SOBs and, with their contributions, have insured us that our Club is in great hands long into the future.”

And, Margaret Nelson provided her “Toast to the Horse”: “Unless you walked here, we all drove or were driven. The verb drove means “to force to go” and refers to driving animals like the horse. Sherlock is forever taking hansom cabs, carriages, gigs and traps in the stories. Sometimes even he or Mycroft drove while Silver Blaze raced. Horses caused Sherlock some troubles without it being their fault. In “The Hound of the Baskervilles”, Sir Henry Baskerville and Dr. Mortimer visit Sherlock’s in Baker Street, when they leave Sherlock and Watson tail them. Upon reaching Regent Street, Sherlock notices a hansom cab following the first pair and says, “There’s our man, Watson, “We’ll have a good look at him”. Watson says that just then the trapdoor at the top of the hansom flew open, something was screamed to the driver and the cab flew madly down Regents Street. Holmes looked eagerly round for another but no empty one was in sight. “There now” said Holmes bitterly, “was ever such bad luck?...Watson, if you are an honest man you will record this also and set it against my successes.”

There were about 300,000 horses in London at the time, so we can feel Holmes’ frustration about no horse being available for him. A toast to our faithful driven-partner, the horse!

Joining The SOBs in February & March 2018 were:

Ben Fetherston of Salem, OR.
Marc McDaniel of Lake Forest, WA.
Sherrill Hendrick of Tacoma, WA
Ed Southon of Olympia, WA

Ben’s is a familiar face and he joined at the February Meeting when wife Sonia Fetherston, BSI (a member since 2012) shared with us her vintage Valentine’s cards.

Marc found us on the web and paid his 2018/2019 dues via PayPal, so we haven’t met him yet! We hope he’ll attend a meeting soon at the Queen Anne Library!

Sherrill is an acquaintance of Margie & Hank Deck’s and is also a member of the local Richard III club. Sherrill was able to attend our Masters’ Celebration in March, so she got a good glimpse of our style and joined that day!!

Ed stopped into a couple of Meetings in Seattle in the last year, then came to the South Sound meeting on March 24 and joined! And, he was a member wwwaaayyy back in 1980! Welcome to you all!!

Things to See, Buy, Do & Know

⇒ From SOB Maffie Rafferty: Just sharing with you what the lid of a bottle of tea I had today said.

- Adds PFL David to the above commentary: (Freeman) and Cumberbatch have given us the Holmes and Watson of our age. I think it is now time for us to support Martin. What follows is the information of how to contact him. Let's let him know how much we appreciate his acting in "Sherlock" and how much we hope he will return to that role. It would be a much poorer world if we didn't have another episode of "Sherlock" to look forward to. Please pass this on to any other Sherlockians that you know. Maybe, together, we can change his mind.

- Adds Editor Terri to the above: Be sure to note the spelling of this play and, for our actors, note the dates for the auditions!!

⇒ From SOB Jean Macdonald: Daedalus Books (sale books.com) is offering “Houdini and Conan Doyle: Friends of Genius, Deadly Rivals” by Christopher Sandford (item 73941) for $5.98 and “Sherlock: The Essential Arthur Conan Doyle Adventures”, with an intro by Mark Gatiss & Steven Moffat and Freeman & Cumberbatch on the cover (item 73985) for $6.98!

⇒ SOB Jody Holm notes: Apparently bee-keeping is now popular! Thanks to our beloved Sherlock Holmes? Available at Costco is this startup kit (at right).

⇒ Adds SOB Editors to the above: If anyone buys this kit, let us know!! We'll refer you to Members Lisa & Ann Marie in Olympia who have some experience with raising bees!

⇒ Writes SOB Judy Lyen: Found this ad (below) while searching for events for the Tacoma PBS station; didn't know if you had heard about it. This is at the Roxy theater in Morton, WA; kind of far for the group in the north end, but it sounds like fun. I plan to pass this on to the Blue Carbuncles as well since it might actually be closer to some of them.

36th Annual Wreath Throw is May 5!

We’re Changing Things Up This Year!

We’ll begin our event, First, with Lunch at the Falls Terrace Restaurant in Tumwater at 11:30 a.m.

This will be followed by our trek to the Falls at approximately 1:30 p.m. for the wreath throw, photos and champagne toasts.

So, you see, we’ve just flipped things around a bit!!

More details will be provided in next month’s issue of Ineffable Twaddle

Sherlock Holmes (and other foolery)

Roxy Players Traveling Troupe

June TBA – Packwood

July 7 & 21 at 7 p.m. – Roxy Theater stage

Aug 3 at 7 p.m. – Mosier Blueberry Festival

Auditions: April 9 & 11 at 6:30 p.m.

Ineffable Twaddle

Per TV Line on MSN: For the first time ever, new episodes of “Elementary”—which was renewed last May despite earning record-low ratings—were held until midseason. Even more worrisome: CBS has yet to announce a return date. However, “Elementary” (allegedly) banks serious coin internationally, which explains CBS’ proactive decision to increase the season 6 order from 13 to 21 episodes.

⇒ Per 24/7 Wall Street, a web news outlet: In its list of the 50 best horror films of all time. At number 45 was “The Hound of the Baskervilles” with Rathbone & Bruce.

Member News & Notes

⇒ SOBs attending our Masters’ Luncheon March 10, 2018 in Federal Way, WA presided over by PFL David Haugen, were:

Kashena Konecki Terri Haugen Chis Berwald
Michael Phillips Laurie Curtis Hanck Deck
Shannon Wallace Jody Holm Margie Deck
Cameron Brandon Carroll Clemens Airy Maher
Dawn Kravagna Jean Macdonald Judy Lyen
Sheila Holtgrieve Nancy Holder Cara Cross

⇒ Guests also attending were Michael’s pal Nadine Berry; Margie & Hank’s friend Sherrill Hendrick (who joined that day); and Dawn Jaekl, a familiar face from the “Sherlock Seattle” conventions! Poor Chris & Laurie had read the starting time wrong, so arrived a bit late but not late enough to miss the food and drinks! Those who offered toasts and their subject matter can be found on Page 3 of this issue. Photos are on Pages 3 and 5. Award winners were Carroll (Gigantic Hound Award); and Dawn K. and Lauren M. (Hound Citations)!

⇒ Outgoing Treasurer Hank Deck was also honored for his service with an original drawing by Al Nelson. A two-year Certificate of Membership was presented to Cameron; others also receiving such Certificates, but not in attendance—Melvin Alcorn of Sacramento, CA; Melinda Michaelson of Tacoma, WA; Paula Price now of Pahoa, HI; and John Trent of Tacoma, WA—will receive theirs by mail! And, our 2018 Beaten’s Christmas Annual was delivered to all in attendance; those who did not attend will receive theirs with this issue of Ineffable Twaddle.

⇒ New Meeting Planner Still Needed! SOB Margie Deck has been doing the work of managing our meetings’ content for the last two years. She has decided to step back from that, so do one of you wish to take up the challenge? If so, please contact PFL David (contact is shown above).

⇒ SOBs attending our South Sound Meeting on March 24, 2018 in University Place, WA presided over by PFL David Haugen, were:

Cameron Brandon Margaret Nelson
Nancy Holder Judy Lyen Ginie Romnes
Melinda Michaelson James Romnes
Sunny Even Al Nelson Terri Haugen

⇒ Our guest that day was Ed Southon, who’s stopped in at our Queen Anne Library Meetings a couple times and decided to join! This was a very informal meeting, so PFL David started out with a discussion of Sherlockian films and actors—using several “Best” and “Worst” lists as comparison, and everyone had a chance to agree or disagree and to add their 2¢ on the topic! Cameron brought along the five new charts and maps he made that record the WWII facts he learned and places visited this last winter! James then gave us a demo of one of his guns and an explanation of the Victorian sport of shooting “parlor” pistols inside their sitting rooms! Between it all, we found time to EAT the vast amount of food folks brought and to RAFFLE off some neat stuff! We all learned something new, and everyone went home happy!!
